

Honor St. Joseph with Mass in a "barn"

(His son was born in a barn)

Join us on a pilgrimage to the
Pious Union of St. Joseph Shrine***
Grass Lake, Michigan

Tuesday, March 20, 2012

Honor St. Joseph by attending Holy Mass in a "barn" dedicated to him, while enjoying the hospitality of the Pious Union of St. Joseph. Climb the "Holy Stairs" to Calvary where a beautiful crucifix is erected. Visit the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes. Browse through the gift shop with artwork and stationery designed by Father Germano who painted the murals in the church. Receive the Sacrament of Penance. Lunch? Our 1-1/2 hour bus trip will include prayer and fellowship.

What a wonderful way to spend a spring day--with St. Joseph and prayerful friends!

* "Pious Union of St. Joseph" -- a non-profit association of members who are devoted to St. Joseph--instituted in Rome by Bl. Louis Guanella. The Pious Union Association began in the U.S. in 1987. A large barn in Grass Lake was transformed into a special Church dedicated to St. Joseph and blessed in 2000. It is hoped it will become a national shrine honoring the humble spouse of the Mother of God. The Pious Union is approved by the Church and the Lansing Diocese.
